No. 7 One Reel

Following the precept of "Him who careth when the little sparrow falls", our four-footed friends, the dogs and the cats, are being cared for in a Hospital for Sick Pets. You may watch the flashing bare feet of Eileen Cotty for a while in New Screen Magazine No. 7 as she dances fascinatingly to the score of "Good Morning Judge".

Part of the world has its eye fast upon the "League-Treaty" and another part is gazing upon the door which opens upon the new Spring styles. And here they are! -- sketched by Hy Mayer -- world famous designer. Think of how irritated the public eye must be having new things in it all the time. It now is forced to blink upon some well-known character. "When the whole blame world seems gone to pot, and business on the bum---a two-cent grin and a lifted chin, helps some, my boy,---helps some". Jerome's laughographs will help too.

Clothes don't make the man but hats certainly make the woman. Let us help you select a becoming one that will fit your head and friend husband's eye. We have heard of riding the rail as something to be avoided but try it astride a log through the mountains and you'll have the excitement of your life. More of the miraculous mud escapades of Willie Hopkins, the noted sculptor. This time it is called "The Mysterious Fanny".
